

FAQ: Men's Ministry

Woodcreek Church | men@woodcreekchurch.com

What is the mission of the Men's Ministry at Woodcreek Church?

The Men's Ministry at Woodcreek Church is committed to building a strong, supportive community where men can deepen their faith, forge lasting friendships, and serve God collectively. Our goal is to empower men to embark on and enrich their spiritual journeys through Bible studies, fellowship, service projects, and other opportunities for personal and communal growth.

How can I get involved with the Men's Ministry?

Getting involved is straightforward! Begin by attending any event or class that captures your interest. For deeper engagement, consider joining one of our small group studies or taking part in our targeted studies and initiatives. Reach out to our ministry team for more information on how to get started.

Are there any costs associated with participating in the Men's Ministry activities?

While some activities may require a nominal fee to cover materials or event expenses, we make every effort to minimize costs and provide scholarships or financial assistance to ensure that all men can participate, regardless of their financial status.

What types of classes and studies are offered?

Our offerings include a diverse range of Bible studies and thematic classes aimed at addressing the unique challenges and opportunities men face. These vary in topic and format, catering to different interests and stages of spiritual development.

How can I stay updated on Men's Ministry events and activities?

To keep informed about our events and activities, subscribe to our Woodcreek ENEWS, check our website regularly, and follow Woodcreek Church on social media for the latest updates and inspirational content.

Do I have to be a Member at Woodcreek Church to join?

While church membership is not required to join our Bible studies, taking on a leadership role within the Men's Bible Study and Ministry does necessitate membership at Woodcreek Church. This policy ensures that our leaders share a commitment to our church's vision and values.

Can I join a Bible study group at any time?

Absolutely! You are welcome to join a Bible study group whenever you feel ready. Although some studies have set schedules, we also offer ongoing groups that are open to new members throughout the year.

What special events does the Men's Ministry host?

Our ministry hosts various special events throughout the year, including retreats, conferences, and social gatherings designed to foster fellowship and spiritual growth among men.

Is childcare available during Men's Ministry events?

Understanding the importance of childcare for many participants, availability may vary by event. Please refer to specific event details or contact our ministry team for accurate information regarding childcare services.

I'm new to Woodcreek Church. How can I meet other men in the church?

Participating in Men's Ministry activities is an excellent way to connect with other men. Small groups and classes are particularly beneficial for forming close relationships. We encourage you to reach out to our ministry team for assistance in finding the right group for you.

Who can I contact for more information about the Men's Ministry?

For further details, please contact our Men's Ministry Director at sean.davidson@woodcreekchurch.com . We are eager to answer your questions and assist you in getting involved with the Men's Ministry.